

Key Messaging to Attract New Members – What We Do

- The joy of contribution/value of belonging
 - We are a 6500+ member strong organization of women who come together to build friendships, engage in thought provoking discussions, and provide scholarships for local girls and women pursuing education.
 - We address local, national, and international social justice issues; provide heightened awareness among members and advocate for appropriate social policy regarding women’s rights and equality.
 - We have a 100-year long history of achievements in ensuring education for women and girls and realizing their human rights.
 - We host engaging, informative speakers, events and activities that enhance lifelong learning.
 - We are an independent, non-partisan organization that works locally, nationally, and internationally. Our voice is not restrained by sponsors, donors, or government grants.
- We offer fun, friendship, and intellectual stimulation. Your membership dues are making a difference for women & girls in your community, across the country and throughout the world.
 - The UN SDGs provide evidence of the importance of women’s education & empowerment at the same time there is significant backlash attacking women’s hard-won rights. Through our local, national, and international work we will build a nation and a world of educated empowered women to change power structures and save the planet.
- Message to prospective members: We are inviting you to engage in designing the future for women in your community, across the nation and throughout the world.
