

Annemarie Mable

When senior citizens in a supposedly civilized country die from emotional and physical neglect in a system that then renews 30-year licences, we are not only forgetting seniors, we are forgetting our humanity.

cfuw cfdu

Lois Flakstad

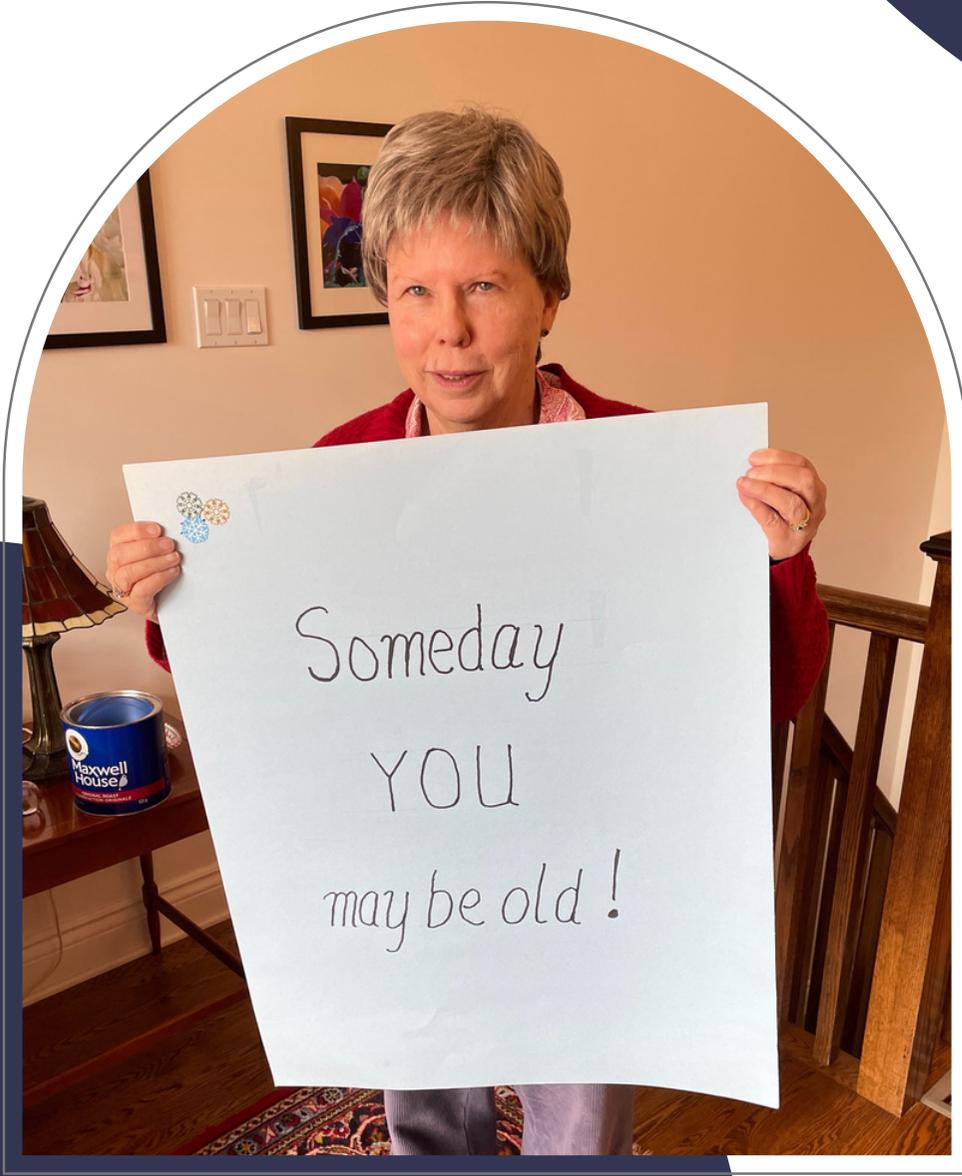

“

*Most folks want to age at home!
Let's listen!*

cfuw fcfd

Heather Lewis

“

Invisible no more.

Elder rights are human rights!

cfuw fcfd

Sylvia Krogh

“

We must work to make sure older people can stay in their homes for as long as possible!

cfuw fcfd

Jeannette Mergens

“

Human rights should not have an expiry date!

cfuw fcfdu

Victoria Grabb

“

Aging in place is the best option for seniors

cfuw fcfd

Leigh
Miller

“

Invisible no more!

Human rights do not have an expiry date.

HUMAN RIGHTS DO NOT HAVE AN EXPIRY DATE

cfuw fcfd

Canadian Federation of University Women

Barbara VanSickle

“

Seniors are valuable and deserve respect.

cfuw fcfd

Shannon Lee Mannion

“

I was renovicted at age 66 in 2018. In 2022, I'm still waiting for a subsidized apartment. I choose not to be invisible. I am standing up and shouting to whomever might listen, "You can't do this to people."

cfuw fcfd

Canadian Federation of University Women

Helen Arnott

“

Elder rights are human rights!

cfuw fcfd

Sylvia Marsh

“

We cannot forget about what seniors want.

cfuw fcfd

Cheryl MacInnes

Funding for long-term care should be conditional on transparency, adherence to national standards and public accountability through random inspections and annual reporting.

cfuw fcfd

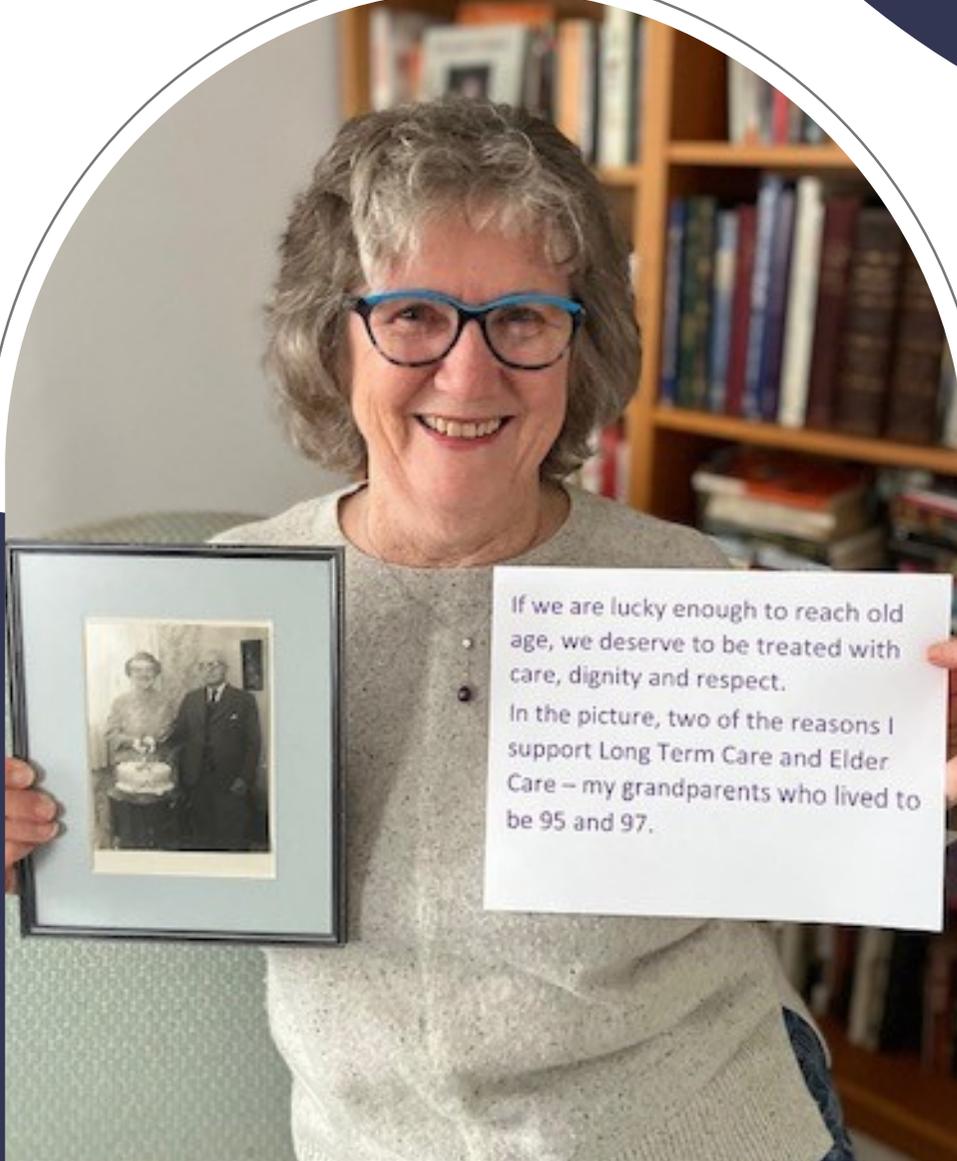

Canadian Federation of University Women

Kathryn Wilkinson

If we are lucky enough to reach old age, we deserve to be treated with care, dignity, and respect. In the picture, two of the reasons I support Long Term Care and Elder Care – my grandparents who lived to be 95 and 97!

cfuw fcfd

Chris Gallaway

“

Elder rights are human rights!

cfuw fcfd

Canadian Federation of University Women

Joy Hurst

“

We must enable folks to age with dignity!

Aging with Dignity

cfuw fcfd

Canadian Federation of University Women

Catherine Doyle

Long-Term Care reform is a women's rights issue. The catastrophe in long-term care was disproportionately borne by women: LTC residents, staff, and family caregivers.

cfuw fcfd

Canadian Federation of University Women

June Boudreau

“

Give seniors a long-term care home that YOU want to live in.

cfuw fcfdu

Jane Bermingham

“

Our broken down long-term care system needs to be fixed so that we know that good comprehensive care is there for all those who need it!

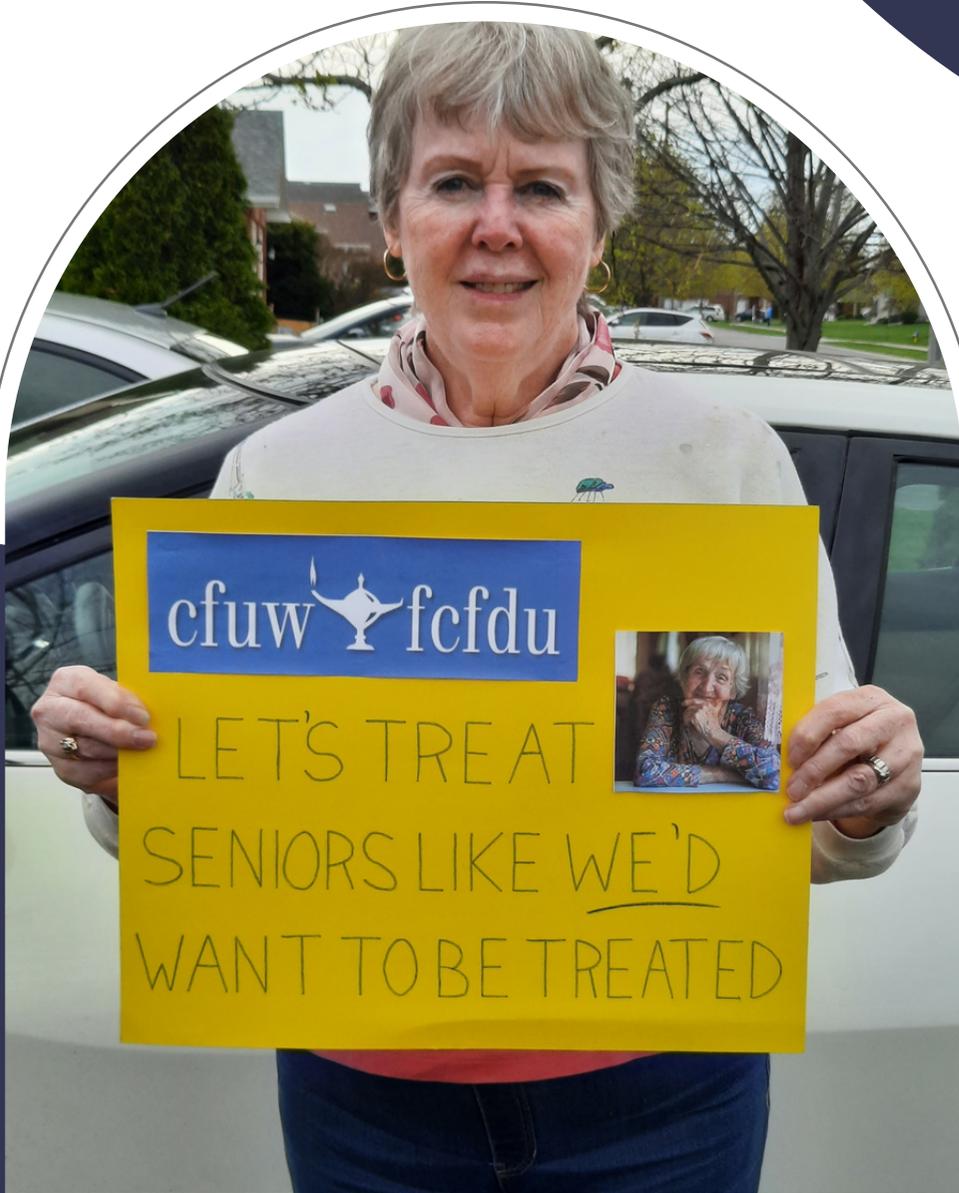

cfuw fcfdu

Barbara Pipher

“

Improve long-term care!

Less FOR profit - more NOT for profit!

cfuw fcfdu

Janet Simpson

“

The rights & dignity of elders, healthcare workers, and those in long-term care need to be respected & protected. We need standards - not profits - in all LTC facilities!

cfuw fcfd

Shirin
Hira

“

Protect seniors!

cfuw fcfd

Canadian Federation of University Women

Sheila Service

“

We owe seniors a debt of gratitude & a duty of care

cfuw fcfd

Lynn Becker

“

Our elders need to be treated with dignity, respect, and care equitably across Canada!

cfuw fcfdU

Canadian Federation of University Women

Margaret Briscoe

“

Dignity for the aged. We must invest in new buildings, well-trained staff, pay better wages, time with pay!

cfuw fcfd

Charlotte Akin

Human rights should not have an expiry date

cfuw fcfd

Mary Miller

“

The conditions of work are the conditions of care.

Seniors are people too.

cfuw fcfd